Author´s Notes

Hello everyone! Thanks for reading Dead+Heart!

This is a short preview of the first chapter. I´ve more pages finished that I decided not to release yet because I want to complete the chapter first.
Some stuff may change in the final product because as I said its just a preview and not the final work.

My goal though is to be able to update it weekly! It will be hard to keep a weekly deadline but I hope the fans can support me in this journey and keep me excited about the project!
